

[Academics] Course Instruction for Fall 2021

To ensure the quality of education while conforming to the social distancing guidelines and government regulations, the plan for course instruction for Fall 2021 at Ewha is as follows:

1. General Rule

Program	Course Type	Format
Undergraduate	Theory, Theory/Practice course with less than 50 students	In-person (optional)
	Lab experiment/Practice/Training	In-person only
	Theory, Theory/Practice course with 50 or more students	Online
Graduate (The Graduate School students)	The Graduate School Courses	In-person (optional)

If a specific format should be taken (in-person only / in-person (optional) / online) regardless of the course registration quota, the course format can be altered with the prior approval of the dean.

- From July 15h (Thurs), 2021, you can check the instruction formats for each course via Academics>Course Schedule/Syllabus on school's website.

- Course instruction formats may change depending on COVID-19 situation (phase).

If the social distancing level is 2.5 or above, all courses are switched to online only.

2. In-person (Optional) Course Details

Instruction Format (Faculty)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Conducted in-person in assigned classroom during assigned timeConducted via online platform in real time for students taking class remotely (synchronous) or record lecture and upload video file afterwards (asynchronous) (ZOOM support to be provided)
Attendance (Students)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Choose between attending in-person class or taking class online*※ Neither option will cause any disadvantage to a student's grade or attendance

* Selection of the attendance option (in-person/online) will be arranged separately after the course registration period has ended (details to be announced later).

- In-person (optional) courses will be switched to online-only courses when no one wishes to take the course in person during the first and final selection of the course format.
- Courses will be switched to online-only courses if the final number of enrolled students for theory, theory/practice course is 50 or more after the registration change (add/drop) period even though the student quota for the course was originally 50 or less.
- Theory and theory/practice courses with less than 50 registered students may convert to being conducted online only or in-person only, or any other more efficient instruction method, if: 1) there is a mutual agreement between the instructor and students, and 2) the dean has approved of the change after consideration of the course type, quality, availability of classrooms.

- There are no quota for the Graduate School course. However, courses can be converted to online-only courses if the registered number of people are 50 or more (the standard for online-only courses for undergraduate students) or according to the decision of the instructor.

3. In-person only courses
